

Sinclair Broadcastings' order to its stations to broadcast a potentially damaging program to one of the candidates in our upcoming elections at a critically timed period immediately before the election is an unlawful use of public airways for political reasons. If they are allowed to do this broadcast, they should be required to present and an equal-time contrary view program. Airways belong to all of us and if they are used for political purposes, the normal election laws should be applicable.